BROOKLYN.

$10,000 For Charities.

Our Check for This Amount Is With the Kings County Trust Company, but It Will Never Be Claimed by Messrs. Abraham & Straus.

We defy them to go before referees, as they suggested, and prove that they, prior to March 25th, 1901, bought outright 15,000 Brass and Enameled Iron Beds ready for immediate delivery, or, that the Manhattan Bedding Company, prior to March 25th, 1901, sold them 15,000 Brass and Enameled Iron Beds ready for immediate delivery, and had on hand 22,000 Brass and Enameled Iron Beds of their own make, ready for immediate delivery.

This, and this only, is what they have persistently advertised until May 13th, when they attempted to crawl out of an unsavory position by publishing an equivocal statement in which they say "arranged for a sale" instead of their original claim that they had bought 15,000 beds.

This is as wilfully misleading as their original statement that they had purchased the beds.

What About This Letter?

"Manhattan Bedding Co., Makers of Artistic Metal Bods, Woven Wire Mattresses, Etc., Nos. 527 to 541 West 23d Street, New York.

March 26, 1901.

Messrs. Abraham and Straus:

Dear Sirs-Prior to March 25th we sold to Abraham and Straus 15,000 brass and enameled iron bedsteads for their present sale. Every bed was new and perfect, made for this season's sales. We then had a stock on hand in New York and at factory of 22,000 beds, ready for immediate delivery; and with our output of 1,000 beds per day, we are amply able to take care of your further orders and not inconvenience or delay the deliveries to our trade.

MANHATTAN BEDDING CO."

Of course, if the Manhattan Bedding Company sold them 15,000 beds as stated in this letter, they must have bought them. If, however, they did not buy them, as they now admit. but only arranged for the sale of them, the object of their first advertisement most certainly was to mislead the public into believing that they had bought 15,000 beds and with the sole intention of overshadowing our bona fide purchase of 8,500 beds, which we still assert to be the largest purchase of the kind ever made by a retail house. The difference between the outright purchase by us of 8,500 beds and the arrangement of Messrs. Abraham & Straus to attempt to sell 15,000 beds needs no

Now, if they didn't buy them, what then is the meaning of the letter of the Manhattan Bedding Company dated March 26th, 1901, which we print above and which Messrs. Abraham & Straus repeatedly published as evidence of their purchase?

It seems to us that it should be unnecessary for us to say anything further on this subject, excepting that we regret that we were forced to take the position we have in the matter, and that it is high time to get out of the newspapers and up to referees. GAME FOR BROOKLYNS. Redo Put Up a Stiff Battle-New Yorks Whitewash Doyle's Team and Take the Lead in National League Race-Bostons and Pitts-Victorious - Other Games - Notes.

There was hard work in all four of the games in the National League yesterday, the first day of the season for the East and West to come together. The Eastern teams won three of the four games. The Brooklyns downed the Reds in an eleven-inning battle. the New Yorks shut out the Chicagos, their victory moving them into first place in the race; St. Louis was beaten by Boston and Pittsburg took a ball from the Philadelphias. The Brooklyns moved from sixth to fifth place. The American League winners were Baltimore, Washington, Milwaukee and Chicago. The National League results and standing follow:

Brooklyn, 8; Cincinnati. 7. New York, 3; Chicago, 0 Pitt burg, 3; Philadelphia, 2. Boston, 4; St. Louis, 3.

BROOKLYN, 8. CINCINNATI, 7.

The Champions played nearer to their real form at Washington Park yesterday than they have done in a week or more and won a hustling, stubborn, exciting game of eleven innings from the Cincinnatis. The Reds made expensive errors but were on the jump every minute, disputing every inch of ground and working valiantly for every point, and it is not difficult to understand how they are so well up in the race. They were beaten, but barring a slight deficit in their percentage figures they got very nearly as much satisfaction out of the game as the Brooklyns. Their vigorous stick work made them particularly hard to down. Their batting was as luminous as their scarlet caps, the hardest and best sustained streak of hitting that has been seen about here this season; but they had a bad spell of poor fielding in the fifth inning which yielded a parcel of six runs to the Brooklyns, who in their turn grew steadily better as the game progressed.

The ever reliable Keeler won the game for the Brooklyns. Keeler sability in a pinch and at less trying times is in inverse ratio to his inches. With two out in the eleventh inning and a man on third Keeler coolly cracked out one of those curving singles of his with about as much ease apparently as he would swing in a hammock, and the game was over. Previously Keeler had sent in a run with a two-base hit and in between his two third base from right field which put out a fleeing Red-leig. BROOKLYN, 8: CINCINNATI, 7.

taps he sandwiched a throw to third base from right field which put out a fleeing Redleg.

The later innings sparkled with entertaining plays. The most peculiar of these was in Cincinnati's half of the eleventh Pietz had opened with a rousing smash to the picket fence for three bases. Newton, who pitched a most plucky game, struck out. McBride followed him and sent up a fly, which soared skyward with the swiftness of Northern Pacific. It came almost straight down and Kelley, Dahlen and Hughes got under it. Each looked at the other two and Kelley and Dahlen stuck their hands up Kelley did a quick change of mind stunt and decided that Dahlen should take the ball Before he could step aside the ball was within reach. It struck Kelley on the head, but before the rooters had time to groan the ball bounded off Kelley's cranium into Dahlen's hands. Also in the tenth inning the Reds looked dangerous, getting a man to first with nobody out, but Hughes, who pitched well after relieving Kitson in the seventh inning, was too much for them. The Brooklyns opened their half of the tenth just as auspiciously. Daly hit to the fence for two bases and took third on Dahlen's sacrifice McCreery sent a high fly to Magoon and Gatins offered a similar chance to McBride.
Kelley started the Reds in their run-getting. Crawford hit to Dahlen, but Kelley dropped the ball after holding it momentarily. He kicked because Dwyer did not allow the out Steinfoldt singled, Irwin and Magoon doubled. Newton singled and four runs came in The Brooklyns scored once in the same inning on a base on balls to Sheckard and Keeler's two-bagger. Two bases on balls, errors by Steinfeldt, Beckley
and Newton and hits by McCreery, Gatins, Kitson and Sheckard let the Brooklyns scored once in the same inning on a base on balls to Sheckard and Keeler's two-bagger. Two

and Newton and hits by McCreery, Gatins,

Capt Doyle's aggregation of ball tossers from Chicago were shur out without a run at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon it was the Chicago sites appearance this season. They were without the services of Doyle, who is sick at his home in Holyoge, Mass. The visitors played a good gaine, but were unable to hit the ball, only five hits being made of Denzer and Phyle. It was the former's first game in the National League and he made an excellent impression. In the five innings in which he pitched only three hits were nade off him. He, however, had to retire in flavor of Phyle on account of it weakness in his pitching arm. Phyle, who finished the game, was at his best and eyed the Chicagos down to two hits. Mencies the exception of the ball channe, who his finger in the fifth inning, when there hits in succession were made, he had catarted in to cate hold to he chicagos, solit his finger in the fifth inning and had to give way to Kling. The batting of Hickman was up to the standard. He knocked out three ringles, which helped to score two of the tirer tire frun in the first inning on a two-bagger by Davis and Hickman's timely since after two were out. In the eight himning the New Yorks scored two more, after two mere after two wore and Hickman followed with another in the same direction. Strang theory and the same direction. Strang then came to the bat and banged one to left, scoring both Davis and Hickman, but was put out by pays and Hickman, but was put out by bays and Hickman, but was put out by bays and Hickman, but was put out he same and hickman, but was put out he same and hickman followed with another in the same direction. Strang then came to the bat and banged one to left, scoring both Davis and Hickman, but was put of the score.
